

BASE BALL. BOWLING. Sporting. BOXING. CYCLING.

There is always a tendency to "heat the umpire," but the following account of the Eddie Gardner-Dave Sullivan fight shows that the local man got the worst of it from Referee Madden. The Brooklyn Times, published in the city where the fight took place, says:

"Dave Sullivan, the sturdy little fellow from Boston, was very fatherly in his manner. He fought Eddie Gardner, of Wheeling, W. Va., in the Brooklyn Athletic Club, and won in the twentieth round after practically beating him down three rounds previously by his superior boxing. That official last night was Billy Madden, and for an expert was quite a bit of a surprise. The fight was a good one, but the bout one of the other of the contestants was either holding on or resting or lying on his opponent without the slightest interference from Madden. But the crowning point came in the sixteenth round, when Gardner with a savage right swung landed on Sullivan's jaw, flooring and dazing him completely. Dave got up and Sullivan turned his back to his opponent when Gardner again swung his left and sent Sullivan sprawling on his back. Sullivan jumped in between the pair, Madden turned Sullivan toward his corner and a majority of those in the audience thought he had stopped the bout. Sullivan, however, quickly recovered and Madden permitted him to continue.

"He regained his mental equilibrium in time and thereafter pounded Gardner with will, without marking him in the least. The southerner, however, was very tired and when he, in the nineteenth round, was defenseless and too tired to make much further resistance, his brother Oscar stepped in and the ring and stopped the uneven contest. The decision going to Sullivan, the excitement all through the bout was quite feverish, but in the sixteenth, when Sullivan went down, it was intense. It is probable that Madden's aid to the Bostonian did not affect the result, but that does not alter the fact that his action was wrong.

"There were quite a few hot mixups during the evening, and the two rounds of the body pretty severely. Several times when the spectators thought Gardner was about done for, he revived and dashing in turned rounds that were at first sorely against him, in his favor. He started with hardly any guard at all and it was too late to see that he would not stay the limit. But as the bout progressed he improved and those who were betting against his chances began to feel nervous. However in the long run Dave was the better man, and won out, but that he was fortunate even he cannot deny."

Arrangements are about all completed for the Metropolitan Club's entertainment next Monday evening, when Oscar Gardner and Jack Hamilton will meet to settle an old score.

Oscar and Eddie Gardner arrived home yesterday, and the latter and "Squid" Finnerty will work with Oscar at his auto, beginning this afternoon, to get him in shape for his Monday night engagement with Hamilton, who wired here last night that he would arrive in Wheeling to-morrow.

BOWLING.

Manager-Fette, of the All Wheelings, while Secretary Karpf, regarding entrance to the inter-club championship contest, being arranged in connection with the big international tournament at New York next July. Yesterday a reply was received from Karpf, in which he says each team will bowl one or two games, and total pins will count. No team can enter more than one team of five men. The winner will receive $1,000 championship trophy, and half the amount resolved from entry fee. The winning team will be champions of the United States. Mr. Karpf expects to have the entries of at least fifty teams, probably more.

BASE BALL.

The management of the Wheeling ball club wishes to announce that this will positively be the last week for the sale of season books. In their effort to provide a winning club they have expended money and transportation, several hundred dollars, and with guarantee and protection which is already up, the amount runs up to about $1,500. This amount has been made up entirely by their own effort and they feel that the base ball enthusiasts should be a little more liberal in the purchase of these books. For a city of Wheeling's population and the towns tributary to it, where citizens patronize the game, the sale of thirty books does not bespeak

Coated

Look at your tongue. Is it coated? Then you have a bad taste in your mouth every morning. Your appetite is poor, and food distresses you. You have frequent headaches and are often dizzy. Your stomach is weak and your bowels are always constipated. There's an old and reliable cure:

Don't take a cathartic dose and then stop. Better take a laxative dose each night, just enough to cause one good free movement the day following. You feel better the very next day. Your appetite returns, your dyspepsia is cured, your headaches pass away, your tongue clears up, your liver acts well, and your bowels no longer give you trouble.

a large amount of base ball enthusiasm. If the friends of the sport would show their appreciation of the efforts of the management in providing what is considered to be a winner and what is considered from a business standpoint the best advertisement any city ever had, and come to the front at this particular time and purchase the balance of these books, it would be of great benefit to the club. There are no doubt a number of people who are "cranks" on the game who have not been called on and would take books. If such parties would drop a note to the Wheeling base ball club they will be attended to.

Pitcher Eddie Poole arrived in town last night, and joined Denny Lyons at the Nichols. The great Wheeling pitcher is in excellent form, and is anxious for the season to open. He has an abiding faith that the Wheeling team is going to be a winner in the Inter-state.

To-day five or six members of the Wheeling team will report, Manager Lytle says practice will begin as soon as the weather moderates.

Vapor baths have been installed at the club house. They are claimed to be as good as a trip to Hot Springs for rounding ball players into playing form.

AMUSEMENTS.

Bubbling over with fun and replete with charming music, "Three Little Lambs," which is to be presented here for the first time to-night at the Opera House, has proved a potent attraction wherever it has been played. It has just concluded a run of fifty nights in New York before audiences that tested the capacity of the Fifth Avenue theatre, and demonstrated their enjoyment of Mr. Barnett's bright wit and genial humor, and Mr. Corliss's delightful music in an unmistakable manner. The company presenting this very popular musical comedy, was organized by Mr. Edwin Knowles, manager of the Fifth Avenue theatre, New York, for the production of such works at his house, and comprises fifty-five people, including Miss Marie Cahill, Miss Nellie Bragins, Miss Clara Palmer, Miss Frances Gordon, Miss Violet Goodall and Miss Gertrude Townsend and Messrs. Raymond Hitchcock, William E. Phillips, William T. Cullen, Edmund Lawrence, Thomas Hackett and other artists famous the country over for their ability.

Huntley-Jackson Company.

Two more large audiences at the Grand Opera House yesterday were delighted with the dramatic productions by the Huntley-Jackson Company. Both offerings were scenic melodramas, and "For Liberty and Love" was particularly good. It will be repeated this afternoon. To-night the company will present the great western melodramatic success, "Golden Giant Mine." It is promised that the "Two Pucks," the best team child artists who have ever appeared here, will present new and pleasing specialties.

News Notes From the Busy Marshall County Town.

As the Republican councilmen are in the majority now they will have the appointment of four police, and there will likely be many aspirants. In this respect too much care cannot be exercised. A good police force will make a record for the party and an inefficient one will have the opposite effect. Among the probable appointments mentioned yesterday were: John Bogard, George Addlesberger, Frank Goodwin, Albert Polley, Allie Lander and George Carl.

The Democrats accepted their defeat good naturedly, and the election was happily free from bitterness. There was the usual number of people explaining "how it happened" and "if" figured frequently in the explanations. Some Democrats were harsh enough to credit their defeat to their first ward councilman ticket, which, they say, weakened their cause. But the fact remains that the Republicans had the most votes.

Mayor Shepard stock has taken a boom for sheriff four years hence. A man who can be put in the mayoral chair four times in succession without making an effort on his part, deserves attention for a higher office. "Tom" Shepard is the same man the day after election as before and if he is pushed for sheriff it will come his way.

It is said the majority of council are opposed to the change of the street railway tracks, but this will be seen when the ordinance presented before the old council is taken up. A proposed decision in the query is to submit it to a vote of the people.

For city assessor, Will Nolte, of the First ward, is suggested. Mr. Nolte is a reliable young man and has always been a true Republican. This office requires a man of ability and judgment, and Mr. Nolte's friends say he will fill the bill.

The infant daughter of August Hepe, jr., died yesterday morning, aged one year and four weeks. The funeral will occur to-morrow morning from St. John's church, with interment at Mt. Calvary cemetery.

Now that the city election is over, county politics will advance to the center of the stage, with a perceptible increase of warmth in the sheriff's fight.

There will be a pretty contest before council for city treasurer between Ed. M. Noel and John W. Leach. Both are candidates for the office.

MOUNDSVILLE BUDGET.

Yesterday's News From Marshall County's Chief City.

The county court at a special session, held yesterday, appointed an auditing committee, consisting of W. J. Burley, F. W. Brown and G. F. Gray, of Moundsville; W. T. Manley, of Benwood, and William Nowell, of Cameron, to ascertain the indebtedness of the county. The order entered by the court provides that the accounts of the county shall be audited since 1885, showing the indebtedness at the close of each year up to and including the year 1899. The above action was taken in accordance with a petition presented to the court some weeks since.

The Ohio Valley Round Table will meet at the Parish House, Friday and Saturday. An excellent programme has been prepared, and many of the principals and superintendents of the Ohio valley are expected to be present. Everything points to a very interesting session.

The Second Ward Republican Club has rented the hall on the second floor of the Walker building, and will meet there every Monday and Friday night until the general election. There are twenty-seven active members and others will be added to the roll soon.
